--O--

ORDER:-

Dr.N.Gopinath while working as Civil Surgeon Specialist (Oph.), Area Hospital, Gudur, SPSR Nellore District had submitted request for voluntary retirement from Government service on 23-08-2008 to attend wife who is suffering from “breast cancer”. The Government after examining the matter, issued orders in G.O. 1st read above permitting him to retire voluntarily from service from the date of relief of the individual. The above orders were not received by the individual until 17-06-2009. Even before the Government Order had become effective, the individual requested for cancellation of his voluntary retirement on 06-04-2009. The Government orders permitting voluntary retirement were served on the individual on 17-06-2009 and the individual was relieved from service on 18-06-2009, i.e., two months after he had withdrawn his voluntary retirement request. The withdrawal of voluntary retirement requested by the individual was not considered by the Superintendent, Area Hospital, Gudur, Nellore District or by the Commissioner, A.P. Vaidya Vidhana Parishad, Hyderabad while relieving the individual from service. Relief of the doctor by the Superintendent of Area Hospital, Gudur on 18-06-2009 was therefore infructuous, as the individual was relieved from service after withdrawal of his request for voluntary retirement before the Government could consider and pass order on his request for withdrawal of voluntary retirement.

2. The Government after examination and considering the above facts, hereby order that Dr.N.Gopinath be deemed to have been continued in Government service without any break in service. However, his absence from work from 18-06-2009 to the date he rejoins duty be treated as Extraordinary Leave (EOL). The staff member also has submitted an affidavit that he would not seek any financial benefit for the duration of his absence from work. The Government is pleased to post Dr.N.Gopinath as Civil Surgeon Specialist (Ophthalmology) in District Hospital, Nellore.

3. The Commissioner, A.P. Vaidya Vidhana Parishad, Hyderabad and the Director of Health shall take necessary further action accordingly.
